Well done!

It has been a dreary week, but I have enjoyed cuddles with some amazingly hard-working children this week! I enjoyed smelling some fantastic artwork to send to China too!

Lunch Menu

Don't forget to book your child's lunch by the evening before in order to guarantee their choice of menu option! Next week will be Week 3. Please make sure you order something your child likes to eat – otherwise this can cause a lot of distress at lunchtime!

Reminders

We politely remind all parents and carers that our school's values are love, trust and wisdom and that we expect everyone to embody these in our interactions and communications with children, parents and staff alike, at all times.

PTFA

We are very sad to learn that the chair of our amazing PTFA will be stepping down at Christmas. They have raised huge amounts of money for us and have several projects underway that without support would have to stop. Please get in touch if you would like to get involved to help provide fantastic resources and opportunities for our wonderful children!

Without a new chair, the last event will be the Christmas Fair on Friday 15th December.

Artwork

The children have produced some amazing artwork and letters for Mrs Fawcett to take with her to our partner school in China next week. The art will be displayed in a gallery and will tour the Jiangsu Province, visiting many schools and universities along the way!

Travelling Book Fair

Our Book Fair is coming soon! Come and snap up some Christmas presents or some holiday reading during the week beginning 27th November until Thursday 30th November. The more book we sell, the more free books for our classroom libraries so come and grab a bargain!
